Mountains" Charms Audience.

The Cloverport Opera House-one of the town's long cherished dreamsopened Friday night with the first play. A foreign troop presented "A Girl of The Mountains", and the performance through the entire evening was very interesting. Three nights of every week, Tuesday, Thursday and Satur day, splendid moving picture shows are given and Cloverport hardly knows herself sitting up in her own opera house. The managers are to be congratulated on their enterprise. Cloverport welcomes clean, entertaining shows and with such presentations the opera house will be a success.

Solbrig's Meat Market.

The East Side people are delighted with the new meat market that has been set up by Mr. Henry Solbrig at his place near the depot Mr. Soibrig's market is clean and orderly and his patrons are highly pleased with the meat he furnishes. He says it is very hard to get enough beef and nogs to meet the demand-and people are not raising enough to supply the town's want and need for meat.

JUDGE BIRKHEAD

Assigned To Convene Meade Circuit Court--Judge Chelf On The Sick List-A. C. Crouch To Be Tried.

Judge T. F. Birkhead will leave for Brandenburg this afternoon, where he has been assigned by Gov. McCreary to hold a two-week's term of the Meade circuit court, on account of the lllness of Judge Chelf, the presiding judge of that district.

The Meade circuit court is for a period of two weeks, but Judge Birkhead says that he will finish up the docket before that time.

The only important criminal prosecution on the docket, and one that will likely be tried at this term is against A. C. Crouch, who is charged with embezzlement and making false entries while acting as cashier of the First State bank at Ekron, Ky. Crouch purchased a lot of stock that was owned by the former cashier, named Lewis, and later on the bank failed. Both Crouch and Lewis were indicted. ## WILSON FORCED TO TELL FACTS

His Support Was Injuring Him. Editor Asked For A Frank Statement, And Received It

Fontaine In Hardware Business EWING TELLS OF INCIDENT

Nashviiie, Tenn., Jan. 19-Robert Ewing, Middle Tennessee representiness of Hook & Fontaine. The deal ative, of the State Woodrow Wilson was closed last week and the business organization, and related, by marriage, to both Governor Wilson and Henry Watterson, today gave out a statement relative to the Harvey Incident.

"it so happens," says the statement, 'that I am prepared to give to the people of Tennessee what I believe to be a substantially correct account of a meeting which took place in New tween Col. Harvey, the able and wellwhich has been the "motto" of Hook & Henry Watterson, solitor of Courier-Journai, and Gov Wilson."

> Judge Ewing says that the publishing house of Harper & Bros., which issues Harper's Weekly, was the publisher of Wilson's history of the United States. Some years ago it was reported that J. P. Morgan furnished that house with some financlai aid, but not, as was generally understood, with any political purpose in view.

Col. Harvey's Claims The statement continues:

"Col. Harvey's intlmates, knowing his character, weil knew that his editorial utterances where wholly untrammeled, and whatever he wrote had as its inspiration his sincere conviction

"When the time seemed ripe to him, Weekly, presented Woodrow Wilson's name to the Democrats of the country as a man, in his judgment, in every issue, growing stronger and stronger, everywhere, was drawn to them.

"Many not knowing the real Indepandence of Col. Harvey, and seeking to harm the Wilson cause, began to lndulge in all sorts of conjectures as to what could be moving the Weekly to so ardently champion Wilson's nomination, while others did not hesitate to put these conjectures into unfounded intimations. As a result, a goodly number of Wilson's real friends began continued on page 7

IMAGINATION ..IN BUSINESS..

By J. L. HUNTER

MAGINATION in the lives and thinking of people is l one of the most needed qualities of the human race today.

Imagination is nothing more nor less the ability to see things before they are actually brought about.

Imagination of the right kind sees things so real, and sees them to so much purpose that the person doing the imagining can bring things to pass, can create, can make out of little or almost nothing the real things of this

Imagination has a good deal that makes it seem like n divine power. It must not be confounded with the capacity to build useless air eastles. It must not be mixed with the idea that a great many have of clairvoyance. We must remember, however, that it is the capacity to see far into things which has made it possible for the great commercial industries of the country to be built. We must not forget that the heads of these industries had the picture in their minds long before the industry had fairly started-Progressive Papers.

The Man Who Hated Women.

(By liettie Brown.)

He hated women-any woman-all women were the same to him. Ile hated them Individually and collectively-and why? Because somewhere In his life there had been a glrl whom he had loved and she had led him to believe that she loved him, but she had married the other man and had broken -not his heart but his falth in women.

He would have nothing to do with them-he was not exactly afraid of Breckenridge Circuit Court, Kentucky them (or so he claimed) but he know that he was immune from their feminine charms and since he was so absolutely sure of this fact, he did not think it have found that there were many others who could take the place of the girl who threw him down.

When a woman came in sight his head went up a trifle higher, and he refused to have anything to do with her. He would not talk to her—he would pay no attention to her when she trled to address him, and the woman went on

But there were many women and many meetings-and after many times of sullenness it became a habit and he brought upon himself the name of Grouch. He was miserable-for what man would not be if he hated ALL women. But he continued to exist in this womanless land of his own.

Think what unhappiness he let one woman cause, aud one who no doubt had forgotten his existance. But it was ever thus-men judge all by one, which is most unfair. To lose falth in one woman and mistrust all is a grave mistake on the part of any man.-Evans-

Doctors Could Not Help Mrs. Templeton-Regained Health through Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Hooper, Nebraska.—"I am very glad to tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me. For five years I suffered from female troubles so I was scarcely able to do my work. I took doctors' medicines and used local treatments but was not helped. I had such awful bearing down palns and my back was so weak I could hardly walk and could not ride. I often had to sit up nights to sleep and my friends thought I could not live long. At my request my husband got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I commenced to take i'.. By the time I had taken the seventh bottle my health had returned and I began doing my washing and was a well woman. At one time for three weeks I did ali the work for eighteen boarders with no signs of my old trouble returning. Many have taken your medicine after seeing what it did for me. I would not take $1000 and be where I was. You have my permission to use my name if it will ald anyone."—Mrs. Susie Tem-PLETON, Hooper, Nebraska.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant vic-tory over the obstinate ills of woman—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why

COUNTRY PRESS FREE FROM SCANDALS

The stream of domestic crime and scandal with which the newsnfit reading for the home, has called attention rather sharply to the ference between the metropolitan sheet, the editors and reporters which are unknown to a great majority of their readers, and the ntry weekly, with which the personality of its editor is insepara-'n the minds of his patrons.

The country weekly is, above all, a clean sheet, fit to be treated It is needless member of the household, and it is edited with a view of print- always-under all circumstances! Who of us can do it? ages of clearinhe news which its readers most desire to read and of eliminating The stunuch which is not fit to spread before people who desire a mental piece of feast that can be digested with a clear conscience.

The city dailies attempt to justify their course by the claim that government seed sent out by W. O. Bradley. with ar they are printing the stuff which the people want. No doubt there work-1, is a large number in every urban center to whom erime and scandal horses, appeal, and it is this delects ofe class that the metropolitan sheet seeks work to ge. please and attract. The country readers, to their credit, would be tter pleased if much of the filth is eliminated from their daily visit-

. News can be given it a clean way, though of ill smelling origin. any salucions details can be cut out if a clean paper is desired by e editor.

The country editor not only edits out much objectionable matter, it suppresses reports of misdeeds which would cause innocent peoe distress. He dess this out of consideration for people whom he yows and because be good purpose could be served by the publication of the objectionable reports. His favors are extended to rich d poor alike, een without apparent appreciation. Indeed, the aplimentary expressions which he prints relative to his readers are an heard of by the newspaper man, though he is just human enough to crave thankfulness like other people, but let him make a slip and say something which arouses resentment, even though innocently, and he is made to wish himself in some other occupation.

The country press is no small contribution to the clean current literature of the nation, and the local paper deserves the subscription and support of every household. -- American Press.

WILSON-HARVEY INCIDENT.

Last week we were for Wilson. This week we are for Woodscribed propeow Wilson and the Wilson-Hurvey incident has not shaken our faith and other hin this man whom we want nominated the Democratic candidate for being in 11 President and to be elected the Chief Executive of our country. We scribed as ithink it was frankness and not base ingratitude on the part of Mr. W. E. of 1 Wilson in telling Col. Harvey what he thought of the support given at right angleim by Harper's Weekly. Col. Harvey must have felt like a counboundary 1 try editor does when an old subscriber stops his paper. We all like same to the loyalty in a friend, we want to be appreciated and Col. Harvey is huthereof to 1 man like the rest of us-we like everything better than franknesshen it hits us. He, of course, was disappointed in the frank answer Woodrow Wilson-just as a country editor is when the old friend : "Stop my paper." We are disappointed in Col. Harvey, the day of sale or of Harper's Weekly, that he is not big enough in mind and art, to see Wilson's veracity, to appreciate a man who has stability tell the truth instead of a polite, pleasing lie that would mean no ore than sugar on his bread.

PAPER BAG COOKING.

The paper hag cooking has created a furor throughout the coun-Wherever it has been given attention it has won hosts of folrs. Many advantages are claimed for this new cooking method ch will be explained by a series of articles that we will run in the ckenridge News. The kitchen and the cook stove, of most importance to the home, are usually the last equipments to be given consideration. Realizing what the cook question means and the horror of tish washing to the average house-keeper, we have taken pains to get the information available about the paper bag cooking for our readers, who are the home-makers.

Sherman Ball says of the Harvey-Wilson-Watterson affair, that Mr. Wilson was right from one stand-point, but not from the standpoint of a politician. He was too plain, and pointed in his answer not enough policy for a politician. "He should have smiled and got ten out of it in a more graceful way," said Mr. Ball.

The truth of the matter is, that Mr. Wilson's st, ength with the people, lays in his open, straight forward way of doing and saying things. He believes in telling the truth in polities as well as in other things. The people have had enough of shams and falsehoods in politics. They are disgnsted with the old ways-they want service. This is Mr. Wilson's idea too. He sees and thinks as the people do. He knows what they want, and is one of them, and is with them When the truth is denunded he stands up and tells the truth, no matter who it hurts, a hig politician or a little one.

According to some late developments in New York press, it is evidently the intention of some of the leading politicians of the country to try to put Woodrow Wilson out of the race for the Democratic CARDS OF THANKS over five lines charged for at the rate of nomination for President. But it will hardly have the desired effect, especially with those who are acquainted with Mr. Wilson's political record. The late controversy between Mr. Harvey and Col. Watterson and the exposure of what took place in a private conference, will not have any effect with the Democrats who are favorable to the candidney of Mr. Wilson. Kentucky undoubtedty stands for Mr. Wilson, and the designing politicians can hardly turn the tide against him in this state.

"He comes up Smiling"-just this without any explanation was apers of the larger cities have been flooded recently, making them running for days in different newspapers and our curiosity was aroused to the highest pitch. "Who is he who comes up smiling? Why does he come up smiling? When does he come up smiling and where?" These and a thousand and one questions came to us every day until we got to coming up smiling ourselves. We have learned it is a title of a new book and a pretty good one to remember even if you don't read it. No man is so splendid as he who comes up smiling

The serving maid, on handing it to him as he sat on horseback, neglected to present the handle. Some wine was spilt over, and His Majesty's white gauntlets were soried.

While riding home he bethought him that a two-handled cup would prevent a remrrence of this, So His Majesty had a two handled cup made at the royal potteries and sent it to the iun. On his next visit he called again for wine when, to his astanishment, the maid (having received in tructions from her mistress to be very careful of the 'King's Cup'') presented it to him, holding it herself by each of its handles. At ouce the happy idea struck the King of a cup with three handles, which was acted upon, as His Majesty quaintly to Louisville Saturday a car load of remarked: "Surely out of three handles I shall be able to get oue."

about it. It is my dearest desire. It is for you some day when you are ready to be my wife,"

She started back from him as if she had been stung. Her face went white on the lustant, not from inaldenly embarrassment, but from the auger widetihe could see flaming in her eyes.

"This taking for granted? This when I nm ready!" she cried passionately. "Listen to me, Mr. Sheldon, 1 like you very well, though you are slow and a unaldler, but I want you to understand once and for all that I did not come to the Solomous to get marrled. Gettlug married is not making some women, but not for me, thank you. Whea I sit down to talk over the freight on copra I don't care to have proposals of marriage sandwiched in. Hesides besides"-

Her voice broke for the moment, and when she went on there was a note of appeal in it that well nigh convicted him to himself of being a brute.

He paused for a softer word than the one that had risen to his lips, and she took it away from him.

"Forced myself on you-that's what you meant to say," she cried, the flugs of battle painting her cheeks. "Oo ahead. Don't mind my feelings,"

"All right, I won't," he said deessively, realizing that the discussion was lu danger of becoming a vituperative, schoolboy argument. "You have lusisted on being considered as a man. Consistency would demand that you talk like a man and like a man listen to man talk. And ilsten you shall. It is not your falt that this unpleasantuess has arisen. I do not blame you for anything-remember that-and for the same reason you should not

"Heaven fortild!" she cried in such sudden and genuine dismay as to make him laugh and to bring a smile to her own lips ugainst herself.

"I've got some more to say to you," Sheldon pursued. "I did try to protect you from every other man in the Solomons and from yourself as well. As for me, I didn't dream that danger lay lu that quarter. So I failed to protect you from myself. I falled to protect you nt nii. You went your own wilful way just as though I didn't existwrecking schooners, recruiting on Malaita and sailing schooners, one ione, uaprotected glrl in the company of some of the worst scoundrels in the Solomons. I love you for that too. I iove you for all of you, just as you nre."

She made a mone of distaste and raised a hand protestlugly.

"Don't," he said. "You have no right to recoil from the mention of my love for you. Remember, this is a man tnik. From the peint of view of the tnik, you are a umn. The woman la you is only incidental, accidental and irrelevant. You've got to listen to the baid statement of fact, strange though it is, that I love you. You are better off and safer on Bernade, in spite of the fact that I love you, than anywhere else in the Solomous. But I want you, as a thal Item of man talk, to remember from time to time that I iove you and that it will be the dearest day of my life when you conseut to marry me. i want you to think of it sametimes. And now we won't talk about it any more. As between men. there's my hand."

He held out his hand. She hesitated, then gripped it heartly and smiled through her teurs.

"I wish"- she fultered, "I wish, instead of that black Mary, you'd given me somebody to swear for me."

And with this enigmatic utterance she turued away.

44 TAFT SUITS AGAINST TRUSTS

President Has Equaled Numerically Roosevelt's Record.

88 CASES IN LAST 21 YEARS

Pending Action Against the Steel Harvester Company.

President Taft has equaled the record of President Rooseveit's administrations for trust prosecutions under the Sherman law. The total number ls forty-four. In Rooseveit's seven years eighteen bliis in equity were filed, twenty-five ludictments returned and one forfeiture proceeding begun. In the little less than three years of the Taft administration there have the Taft administration there have flied, twenty-five ludictments returned been twenty-two civil suits and a like number of ladictments.

with the tiling at Macon, Ga., of a civil suit ugainst the so called unval stores trust and the returning of indictments against the aileged coaster brake trust at Buffalo. From July 2, 1890, to July 1, 1911, there were eighty-eight cases brought under the Sherman act. These were divided:

President Harrison's administration -Four bitts in equity and three indict-

President Cieveland-Four bills in equity, two indictments and two informations for contempt.
President McKinley-Three bills in equity.

President Roosevett - Eighteen bitts

In equity, twenty-five indictments and one forfeiture proceeding.
President Taft-Twenty-two bilis in equity and twenty-two indietments.

The forty-four eases la the Rooseveit regime include the famous Northern Securitles case, the sult to restrain the beef trust, two suits against the Federal Sait company, suit for the dissolution of the Jacksonville Wholesale Grocers' association, one to dissolve the General Paper company, one against Armour and other Chicago meat packers, two sulls in the tobacco trust cases, one against the Terminal Railroad assochation of St. Louis, one to restrain the Otis Elevator company, one agalast the Nutional Association of Retall Druggists, one ngainst the American Ice company, one to dissoive the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, one to dissolve a combination among the anthracite coal carrying roads, one to prevent the operations of the powder trust, one against the Union Pacific Ralirond company, charging a conspiracy in violation of the Sherman law; one against the New York, New Haven and Hartford Rallroad company, alleging na attempt to combine nuder one common control the various steam and electric systems in New England, and a number of less important prosecutions.

Among the most farrenching cases of the Roosevelt administration was the suit against the American Navai Stores company. This was declared to be a combination in restraint of trade in selling turpentine and its products. The defendants were convicted in the lower court. Fines aggregating $17,-500 were assessed, and two defendants were sentenced to serve three months In jail. An appeal was taken to the United States supreme court and Is on the docket awaiting orai arguments.

In its opinion on this case the court will for the first time construe the neual clauses of the Sherman act. The most Important of the prosecutions instituted during the Taft administration were the cases against the American Sugar Refining company. ngninst the Imperial Window Glass company, two cases against the National Packing company and one ugalust the Armour Pucking company, n suit to restrain the Missourl Pacific and twenty-four other rallroads from Increasing freight rates, which produced an abandonment of the pian; a case alleging a combination by the General Electric company to control the business in lucandescent electric iamps, one to break up the transatlantic steamship pool, one charging consplracy against the officers of the Eastern States Retall Lumber Dealers' association, one against the lumber secretaries' bureau of information, covering twenty-three states from Pennsylvaula to the Pacific coast, and other suits of less consequence. Since July 1, 1911, a sult has been instituted for the dissolution of the United States Steel corporation, which surpasses in importance and aggregate of wealth represented the Standard Oil and tobucco cases. Evidence has been accumulated for the prosecution of the International Harvester company, but negotiutions are pending for a voinatary readjustment of that concern's methods to avoid prosecution,

Wilson Believed To Contrary

The statement says that Gov. Wilson opinion, appreclating that Col. Harvey had prominently brought him to the sacred ties of friendship and gratitude, fail to observe he would doubtless have withdrawn.

At this juncture the meeting in New York was held in the rooms of Col. Watterson. As Gov. Wilson arose to leave the ilttle social gathering, Col. Harvey is accredited in the statement with saying:

"Gov. Wilson, I wish to ask you a articles in Harper's Weekly is injuring and cooks all over the country. your cause"?

"Gov. Wilson, thus appealed to, was greatly embarrassed. His appreciatlon, his friendship and his individual opinion, all cried out loudly to him to say no, but Col. Harvey had demanded perfect frankness to him as an undoubted frlend.

Gov. Wilson,s Situation

"Picture the situation-there sat the three leaders considering what was advisable to do or to omit, and so, lu perfect trankness but doubtless with streme and painful embarrassment Gov. Wilson told them what he thought from what he could learn, was the impression being created by the intensity of his friendly editorials. Col. Harvey then said: 'Well, I'll have to put on the soft pedal ' The position of Gov. Wilson, allve as he is to the obligations of friendship, was a cruel one, but among friends, and particularly political friends, steps of friends which may be of questionable wisdom are considered, as well as what is being done by opponents.

All parties parted in apparent perfect cordiality. Col. Harvey may have been then disappointed, and perhaps, wounded by the reply. Tranking over the matter since has evidently tended to increase this feeling.

THERE ARE VARIOUS OPINIONS

While the Liquor interests Say They or Hickman county appeared at the In the Senats Opposed to the Bill, Friends of the Measure, With Equal Confidence, Are Deciaring It Will Pass.—Other Legislative Notes.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 23.-What will the senate do with the county unit extension hill? That is the question that is exciting most interest in Frankfort, just now, among the politicians and members of the legislature. The house hustied the bill along and passed it in record-breaking time last Friday. The bill now will go to the senate and the backers of it will try to have the bili given its first and second readings on Monday and Tuesday and then go to the committee. The backers of the bill say that the senate will act as quickly as the house dld.

One thing is reasonably certain this me; the bili will not be held out in mmittee and juggied with by the complettee in efforts for delay. The committee, which is called county unit, is composed of all temperance men, except one, Senator Huffaker. The committee is favorable to the immediate passage of the bili as soon as it can take the regular course. Heretofore in past sessions, the committee on reilligion and morais, composed of men opposed to the passage of the county unit bili, has held out the bili untli the last possible gasp, which was the day of adjournment two and four years o. This time the committee will let biil come ont and no effort will

The bill which passed is known as the Niles county unit bili. Mr. Niles, who is the representative from Henderson, was the first man in the house to introduce the biii. Severai more have been offered since, but as Mr. Niles offered the first, it is his measure which has been sent to the senate, tion that they have no place on the so that he may have the honor of having the bill called by his name, if it should pass. The senate will be the scene of a lively fight when the bill does come up for passage.

Republican members of the legislature, in the smail minority at the present session, suddenly jumped into the limelight last week as factors in the game of polities that is being played at the present time. The Republicans are only a handful, fint there are some | geant-at-arms to rap three times beinsurgent Democrats not at all enthusiastic about the administration. if the insurgents and the Republicans should unite the adminstration would have a hard row to hoe to get through the legislation that is desired. Only once has this combination worked together, and on that occasion it was triumphant, winning over the regulars, in a modification of the ruies.

it is claimed that the elimination of the two-thirds rule in the house, which change was effected through the coalition of the insurgent Democrats with the Republicans, gives the insurgents a chance to get through some messures that they may want. There a deal of talk here, for instance, that the so-called administration forces are not in favor of a compulsory primary iaw, although this is denied. The majority rule, hy which the regular order can be suspended at any time by a majority vote only, takes power away from the rules committee and is said to insure the passage of a compulsory state primary law.

their intention of standing as a unit to fight for a redistricting bili, seem to have been struck with punic when the reports rolled in from out in the state. The itepublicans who had attended the caucus rushed into print to deny that they had favored any such program. They held several other caucuses been on the county ated by a memt the Republi-

vote as they

a political question. Illram Brown and ambifious program of one John G. Stoll of Lexington were the only Republicans to vote against the passage of the bill when It finally came tob test, although some of the Repubileans voted for delay.

It seems to be certain that the Republicans have tried to formulate some hopes to be able to effect a confition with the insurgent Democrats that may he a power in the house. But it looks now like the Republicans cannot he held in line on mensures considered in secret caucus. Thus far they have not cut much figure in the session.

When Representative W. J. Jackson Will Be Abie to Muster a Majority governor's reception the other night with his whiskers inside his shirt instead of on the outside, the members of the legislature who had heard of the Jackson whiskers but had never seen them were disappointed. They had the ht that Mr. Jackson, who is proud of a whiskers, would consider the reception a gala occasion and display the whiskers. He said he had not had them on the outside of his shirt during the last two years, and did not know that he would show them at the present session, aithough it has been his custom to swing them in the breeze at least once at each of the sessions when he is a member. Mr. Jackson has whiskers forty-two inches long. He has never shaved in his life, although, when he was a young man in the Confederate army he kept his wriskers closely clipped with a pair of scissors.

The governor's reception, by the way, was an enjoyable affair and nearly every member of the two houses of the legislature and most of the people of Frankfort attended, although they had to wade through several inches of melting snow to reach the mansion. The governor is going to hold these public receptions every other Wednesday during the session of the legislature. The custom prevailed when he was governor more than thirty years ago, and the receptions of the governor then have been famous ever since. Governor McCreary says he feels sad when he enters the manslon now and especially at a public reception in the old building, as his wife is no longer with him to manage tidings for him, The governor was a devoted husband sadness caused by his wife's death only a few years ago,

State officials are not pleased with the rules of the senate which, for the first time in many years. They say they were elected by the votes of the people as was Governor McDermott, whom they hold desponsible for the rule excluding them.

So much of n storm was stirred up by the proposed plan to have the senate opened with some show of ceremony that the llentennnt governor abandoned any effort to put through the resolution. He wanted the serfore the opening of the senate, at which signal the members of the senate were to rise and stand while the presiding officer entered the senate and took itls place. This was the mod-Ification of the pian to have the entrance of the lieutenant governor annonnced with a great flourish. ## FINDS OLD LETTER

Earl Bennett Has Letter To His Grand-Father, T. J. Lewis, Written Thirty-Four Years Ago By a Citizen Of Planter's

A letter of unusual interest was fo nd by Eari Bennett, the grand-son of T. J. Lewis, who was representative in the legislature from Breckenridge county in the year of 1878. It is as follows:

Planter's Hall, Ky., Feb 22, 1878. Dear Sir: Having a few feisure moments I concluded to write you a brief letter, having heard nothing directly from you for sometime. I feel anxious to know, as busibodies generally do, what you are doing up there.

Our community is tolerable healthy this winter, though occasionally there is a case of sickness. Samuei Pate has been very low for several weeks with typhoid fever. Robert Mattingly's oldest daughter died on the 16th., and Mrs. L. E. Wheatley died on the 18th. of this month.

... We are having a great deal of rainy weather, keeping farmers back with their work. There has been but little tobacco sold in the neighborhood as yet Ferd is buying some little of the late, paying from 4 to 41/2 for the leaf and from 1 to 11/2 for lugs. Well, I do not know of any news of the neighborhood that would interest you.

i would like to see you and have a talk with you and tell you just what I would like for you to do before you ad-

I want you to abolish the criminal court and abolish the Quarterly court. Empower to county Judge to try ail criminais in 15 days after they are arrested and save so much jail expenses and Judge Murrny's expenses. the man that said if he was to vote for you it would be voting bread out of the children's mouths Give us a chance to vote on road tax. Re-district our county and have six Justices in the county, increase their jurisdiction so as to induce qualified men to run for the you care to pass for my benefit. I will heard from his wife a few days ago.

Attention Farmers!

We Have a Number of Mules for Sale From 4 to 6 Years old at low Prices.

We invite your inspection before you make your purchase for this season. These mules are guaranteed to be sound and to work. There is a better feeling in the mule market, and as these mules are too thin in flesh to ship we are offering the farmers special inducements in order to get more room in our stables for fat mules. We offer no words of advice, but we feel that the quicker you come into posession of your teams for this Spring's work the less money you will have invested. We have a few young mares that would also be suitable for farm purposes, that we wish to sell or exchange for mules or geldings that are in a condition for the market. I am at Hardinsburg on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday.
